COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST, 28 1907.

NUMBER 42

WEDDING ANNOUNCED.

Mr. Horace Jeffries and Miss Zelma Todd to be Married This Afternoon.

MARRIAGE WILL BE A QUIET AFFAIR.

This (Wednesday) afternoon at 5 o'clock, Mr. Horace Jeffries, who is one of Columbia's successful business men, will be married to Miss Zelma Todd, a most excellent young lady, a daughter of Mr. J. D. Todd, who lives near town. The ceremony will be impressively said by Rev. A. R. Kasey, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Immediately after the ceremony, the couple will leave for the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jeffries, who live on Burkesville street, where a reception will be held, and where the couple will reside until the groom gets possession of his property recently purchased of Mr. Z. M. Staples, on Greensburg street.

The News desires to extend its congratulations, trusting that their lives will be spared to a good old age, and that prosperity will attend them as they lovingly go hand in hand down the stream of Time.

Two of the most interesting contests during the fair last week were the harness roadster and sweepstake saddle rings, the former won by Wilson & Steffy, of Barren county, and the latter by Coffey Bros. and Young with a five year old Red Bird Stallion, owned by J. D. Miller, Jr., of Taylor county. He is one of the grandest five gaited saddle stallions we have seen in years and is royally bred, being by Red Bird, 1st, dam by Bates Wilks, 2nd, dam by Lisle Wilks, 3rd, dam by George Wilks. The people of Taylor county should certainly appreciate a horse of this kind as his owner be proud of the great shows he made here as he had only been in training about thirty days. He met and defeated some of the best horses in Kentucky, both at this place and at Burkesville. His development, sudden and thorough, in the show ring, is a feather in the cap of his trainer, Mr. Jo Coffey, Jr., who never fails to bring out all the good and to show it up at the right time and place.

Dr. T. S. Buckingham, of Lexington, representing the Anti Saloon League of Kentucky, delivered a strong address favoring prohibition at the Presbyterian church last Sunday night. He declared that in a short time whisky would be driven from the State; that a bill would be introduced and passed by the Kentucky Legislature, giving the whole people of the State the right to vote upon the question.

Thursday evening of the Fair 'Misses Mabel Atkins and Katie Murrell entertained, at the home of the former, in honor of Miss Brownie Leachman, of Greensburg, and Miss Addie May Jones, of Jamestown. About sixty couples put in appearance and several hours were joyfully spent. Refreshments were served and delightful music rendered.

Columbia Hotel has been sold by Smith & Nell to R. F. Paull and Allen Walker. Consideration private. The present owners have rented the building to Mr. Coy Dudgeon, of Cane Valley, who will take charge about the first of September.

Coffey Bros and Young were the largest winners at the Columbia fair and they are ready to say, "There was a hot time in the old town."

Miss Tina Haynes, who has been visiting relatives in Russell county for the past three weeks left for her home in Kinkwood, Mo., Tuesday morning. Before leaving she subscribed for the News. Misses Minnie Wheat and Nellie Haynes, of Russell county, accompanied Miss Tina to Columbia.

DEATH OF MR. JO DUDLEY.

The end came to this well-known citizen last Sunday afternoon. His home was near Greenville, but he had acquaintances throughout the county. He was a man who had many warm personal friends, and will be greatly missed from the busy walks of life. He was a Master Mason, and was buried by Glensfork Lodge. He was about 72 years old, and leaves a wife and several grown sons and daughters. His health began to fail five or six months ago, and he gradually grew weaker until the final dissolution. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

NEW FIRM.

Dr. James Triplett, who has been practicing dentistry for a number of years and whose work is well-known in Adair and adjoining counties, has formed a partnership in the dental business with his nephew, Dr. J. E. Grant, late of Louisville. Dr. Grant is a graduate of the Louisville College of Dentistry, and practiced successfully in the city. The only reason for his removal from Louisville is, that he has much better health in the country. The parlors of Drs. Triplett & Grant have been invitingly fitted up and when patients call they can be comfortably entertained. Dr. Grant is prepared to administer gas, and makes porcelain work a specialty.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT.

The Board of Trustees of the M. and F. High School has engaged the services of Miss Fannie Smythe as Normal teacher for the coming year. Miss Smythe has done very acceptable work before and a successful class is looked for under her management. This department will be a special feature and work will begin the second session, January 2nd, 1908.

BARGAIN SALE OF SILKS.

We have about 200 pieces of silks, from 1 to 5 yards to piece, assorted colors, which we will sell at wholesale prices.

RUSSELL & Co.

We desire to extend our sympathy to the people of Jamestown, who were bereft of that excellent citizen, Dr. M. D. Hopper. The intelligence of his demise reached this office last week just as we were going to press. The deceased was about 73 years of age, and had practiced medicine for forty years. He was known to every body in Russell county as a most excellent man.

If there is a person who subscribed for the Louisville Herald through Miss Lorena Pile and is not receiving it, or if the paper has been started out of date, those subscribers are requested to let Miss Pile know in order that she may have everything done in regular order.

Clint Smith & Co., have rented and opened a livery and feed stable in the Tutt Stables back of the News office. The firm is now ready for business. By the latter part of the week will be ready to furnish rigs.

If you are a girl 16-18 years of age and want to pay board and tuition by work, apply at Lindsay-Wilson Training School.

M. and F. High School will open Monday morning, September 2nd, at 8:30. J. P. DARNALL, Principal.

PREMIUMS AWARDED.

The Columbia Fair Draws Large Crowds and was a Success in Every Particular.

FULL LIST OF PREMIUMS AWARDED.

The closing of the Fair last Friday afternoon, was witnessed by one of the largest crowds that has been on the grounds for many years on the fourth day. This was due in part to the fact that Thursday was a rainy day, and the further fact that many people regard the last day the best one. At any rate the Association is well-pleased with the attendance throughout, and feel that the many who attended, were not dissatisfied with the many fine shows of stock, good music and courteous treatment from all responsible for the entertainment. From start to finish good order was maintained, but unfortunately for some they took too much of the "Social drink," and were placed behind the bars to sober up and pay a fine, to become wiser, if not better.

There was more good stock on the ground than has been seen there for a number of years. The show of hogs was the best ever seen on the grounds, and while sheep and cattle were not numerous, yet the grade was as good as any section could produce. The mules were well up to former exhibitions, and attracted much attention. The ring horses were there in fine form, and the winners had no easy time. The decisions of the Judges were well received by the exhibitors and the audience, and we can truthfully say that less complaint was made on this line, than at any similar fair ever held here. So far as we are able to hear the many who paid at the gate are well satisfied. The stock men left happy, and the Association is well pleased. CONTESTED WILL Refused Admission to Probate—Children at Swords' Points.

Louisville, Ky.—Judge Walter Lincoln refused to admit the will of Mrs. Laura S. T. Rose to probate as the result of the contest recently brought against the document by Mrs. Sophia Riddle and John T. Ross, children of the testatrix.

It was alleged in the contest proceedings that Miss Edith Ross, another child, had exerted undue influence over the mother during her final illness and caused her to write a codicil cutting off two of the children. It was also charged by Mrs. Riddle that Miss Edith Ross attacked one of her sisters and broke two ribs because the sister had attempted to will upon the mother. Judge Lincoln held that no testimony had been introduced to rebut the charge of undue influence, which appeared in the evidence of the contestants.

BACK TAXES CLAIMED

From Tobacco Trust on Money Held on Deposit in Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky.—The American Tobacco Co. was made defendant in a suit for back taxes on $100,000 for the last five years. The suit was filed by D. L. Hardesty, state revenue agent at large. It is alleged that the American Tobacco Co. is a foreign corporation, composed of three companies, one of which is the Continental Tobacco Co. Hardesty alleges that the Continental Tobacco Co. from September 15, 1902, to September 9, 1904, had continuously on deposit in the banks here $100,000 and that on September 9, 1904, was merged with the American Tobacco Co. and that the American Tobacco Co. since that time has had $100,000 on deposit here continuously. The suit is equivalent to back taxes on $500,000 for one year, and if collected will bring over $10,000 revenue to the state.

NEW PIKE SYSTEM

Will Be Much Extended in Christian County, Kentucky.

Hopkinsville, Ky.—Following the sale of $100,000 worth of road bonds the Fiscal Court of Christian County has authorized that advertisements be inserted in the papers asking for bids on 64 miles of new pikes to be built in the county. These pikes will be evenly distributed through every section of the county, and in many places will reach to the county line. About half the pikes will be 12 feet wide, with the metal 12 inches in the middle and grading down to 9 inches at the sides, while the other half will be 9 feet wide and with a uniform depth of metal of 10 inches. An order was also made for the employment of a civil engineer at a salary of $100 per month to superintend the building of these pikes and the repairing of the old ones. When these pikes are completed it will give the county a system of excellent roads of about 200 miles.

EX-GOV. TAYLOR

Does Not Believe Powers Said He Is Obligated to Testify.

Indianapolis, Ind.—William S. Taylor, former governor of Kentucky, charged with complicity in the Goebel murder and for several years a refugee in the state of Indiana, said that he did not believe that Caleb Powers gave expression to the sentiments attributed to him in an interview in which he is quoted as saying that Taylor is under obligations to him and others to come forward and testify. Taylor seems to think that an effort is being made to entangle him, that Powers would not be a party to it, and therefore, used no such expression. He says, however, that nothing official has come to his notice and he does not care to discuss the matter further.

LIGHTS PUT OUT BY BULLETS

POSTAL TELEGRAPH OFFICE ATTACKED BY MOB.

First Violence of Strike Reported From Ashfork—Gov. Kibbey Urged To Protect Property.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 21.—An armed mob attacked the office of the Postal Telegraph Co. at Ashfork, Ariz., Tuesday, and broke every window in the building with a rain of bullets. The lives of four of the employees were endangered, but so far as known no one was injured.

The shooting began at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning, but the Postal employees made no resistance.

Superintendent Lewis, of this district, wired the following to Gov. Kibbey: "Monday night an armed mob attacked our office at Ashfork, shooting into the office with revolvers and endangering the lives of our employees. They threatened to renew the attack Tuesday night. I call upon you to protect the lives of our employees and the property of the company at Ashfork. Please act promptly."

Gov. Kibbey replied that he would act immediately.

The following is the official report of Mr. Swin, one of the electrical engineers of the company at Ashfork:

"We were forewarned that there would be trouble, so about 9 o'clock Monday night we barricaded the front and back doors so they could not rush us."

"At 10 o'clock several parties tried to get in the front door. We turned all the lights out except one over the sidewalk and another over the inside counter."

"There was not much doing with the exception of kicking on the doors until 10:15 o'clock, when we saw a man come from the direction of the Harvey house. He stopped at the front door and fired three shots."

"One went through a glass door in front and another through a glass door on the side."

"It was quiet then until 2:15 a. m., when three men fired another volley breaking more glass. At 3 o'clock the crowd came again and fired more than a dozen shots. The lights left burning were shot out. One of the last shots fired was aimed, apparently, at a cot on which Sutton, one of our men, was sleeping."

Ashfork is a small town in Arizona on the Santa Fe, and is the chief "repeating" station of the Postal Co. between Los Angeles and the east. Five men are regularly employed, but three walked out when the strike order was given. One man has since been sent there from San Francisco to join the company.

The telephone office is now guarded by Sheriff Lowery and two deputies who arrived by special train from Prescott.

The sheriff has arrested a man known as "Speck" Smooth. It is said, however, that Smooth is not a telegrapher.

JERKS OF THE DENTIST

In Pulling Teeth Broke the Patient's Neck and He Died.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 21.—George Davis, 28 years of age, died in the county hospital of what was diagnosed by the physicians as a broken neck. Davis came to the hospital one week ago. His arm was paralyzed, and the day following his arrival he was attacked with severe pains in the spinal column. He was told by a physician at the hospital that he had gone to a dentist to have a tooth extracted. The tooth was difficult to extract, and Davis said that the dentist had jerked him severely.

It is believed by the physicians that the dentist dislocated a portion of the spinal column in the neck by his jerks.

Slew Son; Wounded Father.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 21.—Frank Smith is dead and his father, W. N. Smith, both of Atoka, Tenn., is in a critical condition at the city hospital as the result of wounds inflicted with a shotgun by Ben Harrell in this city. Harrell was taken into custody charged with murder. The shooting is the culmination of a quarrel early in the day over a trivial matter, which was resumed afterward. Harrell is well known in local politics.

Duckboat Upset; Four Drowned.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 21.—Three persons were drowned here when a duckboat capsized in the Sacramento river. A fourth victim was added to the list when Manuel Gregg, an expert swimmer, was pulled beneath the water by two women who had plunged in to rescue the three men whose boat had overturned.

105 Were Killed.

Berlin, Aug. 21.—The directors of the Shantung Mining Co. received a cable message from Tsingtau announcing that an explosion of dynamite had occurred underground in the Pangius mine resulting in the killing of two Germans and 105 Chinamen.

LOUISVILLE WOOD FIBER PLASTER

Is a substitute for common lime mortar. There is intelligent economy in the use of this material. The use of common lime mortar for plastering makes a weak and uncertain ceiling, as it is liable to fall any time and cause several hundred dollars damages. You can den it like wood; containing no sand you can saw or nail it like wood.

COBURG.

This seems to be one of the favored sections so far as rain is concerned, and vegetation was never better. Tobacco is fine, while good prices stimulate good cultivation and careful handling. The wheat is all threshed with a poor yield, and low prices, and this means a low acreage for the coming crop.

The Logging business of the McLean Lumber Co., has been at a standstill for some weeks on account of teams and hands being employed elsewhere, but will open up in a few days with a greater force than ever.

The sick of this section, are all reported improving. Mrs. Daves, a very old lady, is some better. Bob Hancock, of Kelleyville, is improving, and Mrs. Luther Curry is much better.

A star-well-digging outfit made the rounds of Coburg, and struck some fine streams of water. Will Jones, the blacksmith, at a depth of 67 feet, struck a fine stream. Charlie Morris and Jim Hare struck fine streams at 30 odd feet.

Road overseers with their hands and teams have been putting our roads in good order the past few weeks.

The question of personal privilege is one that may come before the observant mind each day in the year. A few years ago the writer called attention to the depredations committed upon the farmer's woodland by the thoughtless people digging native ginseng and other medical herbs, which served in a measure to suppress this kind of trespass upon the land owners. However, the advocacy of this fact does not in a measure destroy the idea among some, that many things not their own is theirs if they trouble themselves to take it. As example men of good standing will go on our creek lands and haul away gravel and convert it to their own use, without so much as asking for it. Now a thing not worth asking for, and yet is beneficial to us, certainly should have a value in some way. How much difference is there between the man who goes into your fenced up field and hauls away a load of your soil, than the one who goes on your outside land and hauls away a load of gravel? If the former is trespass and open stealing, what is the last?

Our Fairs have come and gone. The one at Burkesville was good, and so was the Columbia Fair, but there is something lacking. These Fairs are created to stimulate interest among the farmers and stock men, but do they serve this purpose. The premiums offered the agriculturalist are not sufficient to warrant preparation for a display, much less to stimulate superior effort. This accounts for the small display of agricultural products. The stock features are all right, but lets have a division of interest between the stockmen and agriculturists?

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed T. E. Paull, druggist. 50c.

DROWNED IN CUMBERLAND RIVER.

On Sunday morning between nine and ten o'clock Forest Ray Humble a sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Humble was drowned. His body was found Monday morning about nine o'clock. Brother Etherton preached the funeral and his body was laid to rest on his father's farm near Kendall.

Ray was a noble little fellow, a boy that always had a bright smile and a pleasant word for everyone, dutiful son to father and mother, a loving brother to little brothers and sisters. He leaves four sisters and two little brothers.

Our loss is heavens gain, One fond hope remains unblighted Hopes of meeting Ray again. When we shall be transported From this world of sin and pain, Our hearts with sorrow broken Christ has felt the cruel thorn, He will give back our darling Ray On the Resurrection morn.

The tragic ending of the life of ex-Mayor Paul C. Barth, by his own hands, brought sorrow to every person who knew the man. He possessed a lovable character, his heart as tender as that of a woman, honest in all his transactions, but he could not stand "nagging" by partisan newspapers. He loved the city of Louisville, Louisville loved him, as the thirty thousand friends who were in the funeral procession testified. He is gone and the city of his birth has been made poorer.

AN OPEN LETTER.

MR. G. LUTHER PERRYMAN:

On the seventeenth of June, I issued a circular stating that I was a candidate for the Legislature, subject to the action of the Republican party. I was a candidate in good faith. This was one among the first races that had come up since the wonderful decision of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, setting at naught the Louisville election of 1905. In that decision the Court took the grounds that the title to an office should be as clear as the title to one's homestead. That was a very far reaching decision. I came out as a candidate determined to make the race in accordance with that principle. I was opposed by yourself and another man, both professing to be Christians.

When Mr. Zeke Roe asked you if you ever used profane language you replied that you were a member of the Church. In view of the decision mentioned above, and the fact that you professed to be a Christian, I felt sure that our race would be upon high-toned principles.

Shortly after I had announced myself a candidate, I met you and proposed to you that if you would not interfere with the two town precincts I would not interfere with the three, White Oak, Little Cake and Pellyton. You readily agreed to it. Afterward when I saw you here so often, I called your attention to our agreement. You said your horses were all busy on the farm and you had to come to Columbia to hire a horse on which to make your canvass. The next time I spoke to you about it you said that your uncle at Creelsboro was lying at the point of death, and that you were expecting every day to hear of his demise, and that you had to keep in touch with the telephone all the time. The last time I mentioned our agreement you told me that you had understood it to be in fun.

Now, all this time, were you not laying your plans by the use of tainted money and bad whisky to carry East Columbia precinct? I kept my part of the contract in good faith. Time and again my friends insisted on my coming to Little Cake and White Oak, but I always told them of our agreement and would not go. Now, did I do the right thing? Did you? Then without any evidence in the world, and in the face of my denial, you persisted in telling the people that I was a ring candidate, and had been put out by the town clique. Now, in this, did you do right? Then you told Mr. —, of Elroy, that I was a very rich man, worth $50,000. Now, if you did not believe that, you ought not have told it. If you did believe it your ignorance is so dense that you are unfit to represent this county or any other county in any deliberate assembly.

In the speech which you made accepting the nomination, you said, "We must all go to work and make a united effort to elect the State ticket." When did you change your mind about the State ticket? After the State Convention, and after Wilson was nominated, you staid one night at Mr. Rice Pikes' and spent nearly the whole night in abusing Wilson, Bradley and the whole ticket. Something had come over you between the two periods.

Did you not from Columbia send out money to buy floaters and to corrupt the ballot generally to the amount of over two hundred dollars?

Did you not sell out to a corporation when you promised the manager of the Mighty Haag Show to have the license tax reduced on his show in consideration of two tickets into the show at Glenville? If you answer this in the affirmative, don't you think you sold too cheap?

Do you not think that at such prices it will be difficult to raise money enough during your term to pay the cost of your race?

Did you not promise Mr. McCubbin, Cane Valley precinct, to pass a stock law when you went to Frankfort, in consideration of his services in helping you in your election? Did you not know at the time that a large majority of the people of Cane Valley were opposed to such a law?

Were you not at Cane Valley on the day of the convention, and did you not and your friends buy floaters publicly; did you not debauch the ballot, so that by its side did not the Music Hall Convention look respectable?

Do you believe that that convention was the free expression of the Republicans of that precinct? and do you believe that your nomination was the action of the party in the county?

In view of all these facts, if they be facts, and you can say whether they be facts or not, am't you ashamed to ask the Republicans of Cumberland county to ratify such a tainted nomination? and do you believe that the nomination was the act of the Republicans of Adair county?

Finally, do you believe that when I announced that I was a candidate subject to the action of the Republican party, that I ought to be bound by it?

U. L. TAYLOR.

IN MEMORIAM.

On Saturday, June the 29th, the death angel visited the home of Louis and Alice Prewitt, and took from them their darling little Ralph, aged 18 months. He was born January 26, 1906.

Friends, God has plucked a bright flower from your home for some wise purpose.

While we extend to you our deepest sympathy, we realize that God alone, can pour balm upon your poor aching hearts; that angels eyes now watch your darling, who is safe with him. "Suffer little children to come unto me for of such is the Kingdom of heaven," and when life's dark days are ended your little one will be waiting to receive you.

Darling Ralph, thou hast left us, here thy loss we deeply feel, but 'tis God that has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal, Then peaceful be your slumber, peaceful in your grave so low you no more of sorrow know. Let us hope to meet him when the cares of life are fled, where there is joy, peace and gladness; where no farewell tears are shed. Broken-hearted, sorrowing parents, hear God's promise pure and blessed, Come to me ye heavy laden, I will surely give you rest. A friend,

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

I have made and filled appointments in each magisterial district of Adair county as required by law, for the purpose of receiving taxes for the year 1907, and from this time I am supposed to have it paid to me at my office in Columbia, Ky., and I do not intend to keep up this thing of visiting and begging people to pay me. These taxes are due the county and State, and all that I get out of it is a small commission for collecting, out of which I have to live and pay the expenses of the office, and I do not purpose to spend it traveling over this county. If you owe it come and pay up, and save the cost of a forcible collection. This is intended for every tax payer in Adair county who has not already settled.

A very bad act was perpetrated upon Mr. T. C. Bell, of Boyle, Casey county, who attended the Fair in company with his daughter. He located his buggy near the stables, and on Friday, a person, no doubt a thief, removed the lines from off his horse, and they could not be paraded. Whoever did this dastardly trick should be severely punished. Mr. Bell was compelled to purchase new lines before he could start homeward. If the lines have fallen into the hands of an honest man he will please leave them at the News office. They may have been innocently purchased from the party who stole them.

NOTICE.

A system of signals have been adopted by the Electric light plant and a copy of same tacked up in each store and residence. When Electric lights are used and if you will pay attention to the signals you will know just what the plant is going to do. So you can govern yourself accordingly.

Mr. J. A. Parson, who has been connected with the mills of this place for several years, giving perfect satisfaction, has bought a one-half interest in the Gradyville Roller Mill, and will remove to that point about the first of October.

There will be a basket meeting at Pollard's Chapel next Saturday, every body cordially invited to attend services and bring baskets. There will also be preaching at 11 o'clock Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Rounds, who is now in Michigan, will open her music school in this place the third week in September. Since her absence she has been attending a conservatory of music and is better prepared than ever to give satisfaction. Stringed music a specialty.

The Second annual exhibition of the Pea Ridge Fair will be pulled off next Saturday the 31st. The managers are Paul Hughes Edwin Cravens and Ralph Hurt. See premium list published in the News.

Miss Katie Russell handsomely entertained all her young friends Monday evening of last week. Refreshments were served and the band furnished the music.

S. C. Pemberton, Horse Cave, while attending the Fair, bought ten or twelve mules at an average of $165 per head. He also bought several extra good horses at fancy prices.

There never was a finer ring of colts seen in a show than the one that followed Jordan Peacock around the ring last Thursday. There were 25 entries pretty as a picture.

Editor News:—

While I am no longer a citizen of Adair county, Ky., it is the land of my birth, the burden of my waking hours, and the spirit of my dreams.

Such being the case, I shall offer a friendly suggestion, not meaning to be hypocritical, or to assume dictatorship. For bravery, chivalry and hospitality the dark and bloody domain has the call over every other place ever penetrated by the hardy explorers.

I know the people of Kentucky are not niggardly, and yet in one thing they are weighed in the balance and found wanting.

That the spirit of education abounds, the M. & F. High School; together with the L. W. Training School are proud and enduring monuments, while the determination to maintain the majesty of the law is attested by a magnificent temple of justice, surmounted by an imposing town clock, and by a safe and sanitary jail.

The proff of your commercial activity and enterprise is evidenced by three good banks, and your elegant business houses with modern display windows.

Your town is backed by a sturdy citizenship, who wrest a good living from mother earth, and the hum of machinery is heard in the land, certainly singing with a livelier candor than the dolorous "Song of the Shirt" as portrayed by the poetic genius of Hood.

That God is honored and his country exalted, the proof abounds when the sojourner sees your church spires pointing heavenward, and beholds the representatives of the church militant wending their way to divine worship, like that multitude described by John at Patmos, which no man can number.

But allow me to suggest that you fail to give your county paper proper support. The News fights your political battles, it enjoins internal improvements and civic righteousness. When the forces of Democracy and Republicanism meet in conflict the call of its party, is as the voice of God, and to stimulate interest in your boasted institutions of learning, it rings out clarion-toned, the notes of warning or commendation.

Every merchant in Adair county should advertise in its columns, and every lawyer, doctor, dentist, or what not, should keep cards in its columns. Advertising certainly pays, both the paper and the one who places the ad. Your editor will tell you that it costs at least $1,200 to get out a weekly paper fifty-two times in the year. Printers must be paid, paper and ink cost something, and the editor is not averse to, now and then reveling in a four coursed meal. While he may have no pride in the matter, the mandates of society require that he wear clothes.

If he is a fighting editor, and belligerency is expected of a Kentuckian, his guns cost something, and he must have tongue practice. You see I know for I've tried it. Cleveland county, where I live, is not one fourth as well endowed by nature as Adair county. Land is poor, timber mostly short leaf pine. The cattle, horses and hogs of this region would be objects of ridicule around Columbia, yet the people here maintain two county papers, the Democratic organ, a semi-weekly. It carries an ad from every merchant in Shelby, and most of the county merchant.

Every lawyer, doctor, dentist, photographer, foundryman, cotton-ginner, laundryman, liveryman etc., patronize its columns with ads. King's Mountain, a town of near 3,000 inhabitants, also maintain a paper, weekly, and its columns are well patronized.

Cleveland county has just built a graded school building at Shelby, costing $35,000, and a contract has just been let for a $68,000 court house.

Our poll tax is $2.60 and we get back $1.10 per capita, for school purposes.

While a $30,000 Court-house would have answered every purpose in a county having no roads, and paying school teachers a beggarly stipend. But if a sterile county, like this, can run three papers and all get good advertising patronage, why can't Adair?

I know that Adair needs a paper, and really wants it, besides wanting one, she has it, but how it can be run under present conditions, at any profit to publisher, is a mystery.

Adair county ought to furnish a paid subscription list of 4000 and at least $10,000 worth of advertising matter should be used in its columns.

Stamey Bros., a firm at Fallston, N. C., began mercantile business at Fallston, N. C., several years ago, they had a surplus of $30,000.

J. P. D. Withrow started up at Hollis, N. C., 8 years ago with $150 cash. In three years he was a stupendous advertiser. Now he is said to be worth $30,000.

I certainly hope the people of Adair county will go to work and show a commendable enterprise.

My word for it, it will pay both patron and publisher. Remember no one asked me to write this.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour indigestion, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

Those who have stomach trouble, no matter how slight, should give every possible help to the digestive organs, so that the food may be digested with the least effort. This may be done by taking something that contains natural digestive properties—something like Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Kodol is a preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat. Sold by Page & Dehoney, Columbia, Ky.

STONED THE JAIL AND COURTHOUSE.

INFURIATED MOB SOUGHT LIFE OF WAGNER,

CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING

Daughter of Rev. R. B. Whitehead—
She Was Dragged into Woods and Kept a Prisoner All Night.

Meadville, Pa., Aug. 20.—In a cell in Crawford county's strong jail here
William H. Wagner, aged 27 years, of Lisbon, O., lies shivering, while in front, backed by a determined and armed force, stands Sheriff R. P. Marshall.

In groups here and there can be seen men, some of them fathers of daughters, and if the law is allowed to take its course in Wagner's case it will be because Crawford county has a sheriff with nerve.

Wagner is charged with being the assailant of Anna Whitehead, 14-year-old daughter of Rev. R. B. Whitehead, pastor of the Greenville Methodist Episcopal church. The girl was caught by a man last Saturday night, dragged into the woods, stripped of all her clothing and kept prisoner all night by a fiend, being bound to a tree, entirely nude, while the creature who held her captive at the point of a knife slept. She was rescued Sunday morning, staggered to her home, more dead than alive.

"He had red real hair," was part of the description given by the victim, and Crawford county's male population started to find a man with "red hair," while a physician worked hours over the girl, who is not expected to survive. Sheriff Marshall and the county detective headed one posse. Wagner, who, Sheriff Marshall says, admitted his guilt, was found buried under railroad ties, bloodhounds leading the detective to the pile of ties, while the balance of the posse went into the woods.

At several points on the road groups of excited and enraged persons had assembled, with a view of wreaking summary vengeance and punishment on the prisoner in the sheriff's automobile. The sheriff, however, had no difficulty in deciding what was the intention of these groups, and, as each was reached, he threw wide open the power of his automobile and passed them with his prisoner in safety.

When Wagner was arraigned here a mob stormed the courthouse, clamoring for his life. They stoned the courthouse and the jail, and for a time it was believed that Sheriff Marshall and his deputies would be compelled to give up the prisoner, but they succeeded in retaining him.

Wagner will attempt no defense
when he comes to trial at the September quarterly session. Wagner, in his confession, describes in detail his attack on Miss Whitehead in the public road near her home at Turnersville; how he carried her into the woods, and all that happened before he released her at daylight. He admits everything, offering in palliation,
"I don't know why I did it."

PLAYED HANGING,

And Ten-Year-Old Boy Was Found Dead in the Barn by His Father.

Unity, Wis., Aug. 20.—While attempting to imitate the hanging of a criminal about whom he had read, Carl Justman, the ten-year-old son of Louis Justman, lost his life.

The little fellow was playing about the barn when his father was hauling in grain. When the men returned from the field they found the boy hanging from one of the barn posts by a short piece of rope attached to a staple.

The supposition is that the little fellow was "playing hangman" with the rope fastened around his neck, and fell off the beam upon which he was standing.

Discovered Taking Sketches.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 20.—Two Japanese were discovered in the rear of Port McPherson taking views and sketches of the buildings and grounds.
A former enlisted man who first observed the men, after talking with them, reported the matter to the department of the gulf. The officials of the department say no action will be taken unless other discoveries are made.

Law Declared Valid.

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—The state supreme court rendered a decision in the McKannan salary case, sustaining the legality of the removal of Mayor
Schmitz and the appointment of Mayor
Taylor.

The Crop Ruined.

flood has ruined 50 per cent

Old uncle Levi Butcher was happily surprised the other day by the return of his son, Bert Butcher, of Buckhart Mo., whom he had not seen for 25 years.

The old folks singing at Salem, last Sunday was largely attended. It makes us feel good to see old uncle Levi Butcher stand before his class without the aid of a book and sing any song he is called on to sing. May blessings rest on the old folks.

Mr. Bert Butcher, of Missouri, is here on a visit to his father, Mr. Levi Butcher and brothers, Jacob and Newton.

It was your scribes good fortune to attend the session of the Russell Springs Medical Association held at Columbia first of the month. Everything seemed lively and we noted many improvements since two years ago. Every one in the News office was busy and it is no wonder that the News is the brightest and best in the state, when you see the force at work in the office.
